DANEHURST STREET
TO LET

An exceptionally well maintained Victorian terrace, with excellent family living space on a quiet and well located street in Munster Village. Neutrally and tastefully decorated, the living area has attractive wood flooring and two open fireplaces. The kitchen-dining area, is stylishly designed to include a large island with French doors out to the beautiful, enclosed patio garden. From the kitchen, stairs lead down to a basement utility room, also benefitting from useful storage space. The first floor comprises; master bedroom suite with small balcony, two further double bedrooms and the family bathroom. A guest suite is located on the top floor which has a Juliet balcony overlooking the gardens to the rear of the property. This lovely welcoming home would be perfect for a family seeking light, spacious and very well presented accommodation.

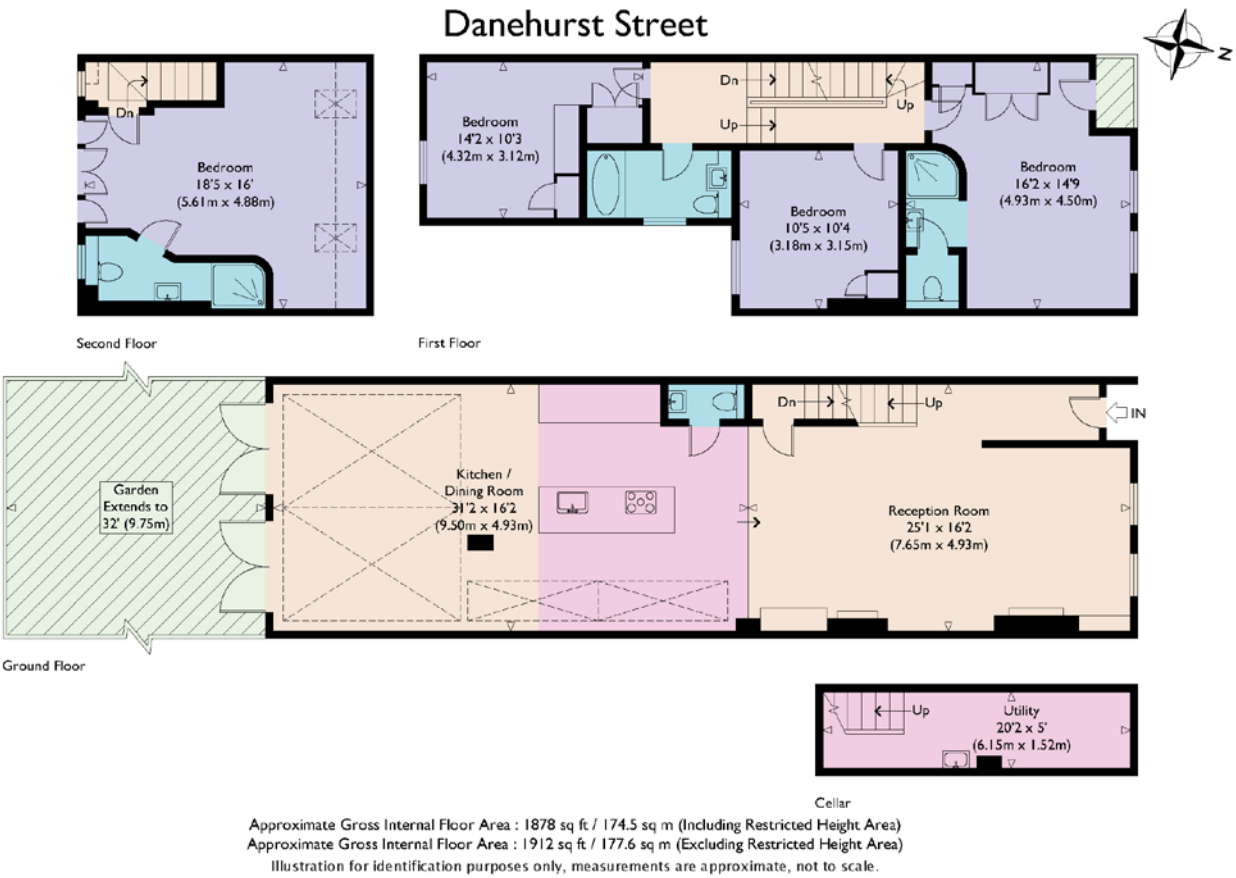

Danehurst Street runs off Munster Road, which provides a variety of amenities immediately accessible on foot. Fulham Road, Parsons Green and Fulham Broadway, which are all within easy reach, offer even more in the way of amenities such as high quality boutiques, shops and restaurants. The revitalised and vibrant Bishop's Park is a short walk away providing a superb green space which in our opinion is one of the best in London. Its Victorian Beach and playground area is a superb recreational space for families, as is Fulham Palace and its attractive surrounding gardens. There are also excellent tennis courts, further playing areas and a weekly farmer's and fine foods market.

Transport links are in great supply from either Parsons Green or Fulham Broadway tube on the District line, or buses running up Fulham Palace Road into central London via Kensington, or along Fulham Road and New Kings Road via Sloane Square.
