DESCRIPTION Little Borough is a most attractive and individual family home built for the present owners in 2011, having brick elevations under a pitched tiled roof. Designed to be highly energy efficient, the house provides bright and adaptable accommodation that includes a triple aspect sitting room with wood burner, stylish kitchen/dining room, family room and study together with a useful utility room and cloakroom. On the first floor there are four bedrooms, two with en-suites, and a family bathroom. Outside, automatic gates lead to a large gravel driveway providing ample parking and leading to an integral double garage. There is also a large two storey barn/garage that could be adapted to suit a wide range of different requirements subject to any necessary consents. The house is set in secluded gardens and grounds that extend immediately around the property to approximately 1.3 acres and comprise an area of formal garden and adjoining fenced pony paddock. Beyond the house is an attractive area of woodland leading to the paddock and pasture land which extends to approx. 6 acres with timber stable block and hay store. There is a further area of woodland beyond which borders a stream. The Woodland in total is approx. 9 acres. Having direct access to the Thursley National Nature Reserve and some of Surrey's best walking and riding countryside the property is likely to appeal to a purchaser with an equestrian interest and love of the countryside. Early inspection is highly recommended.

SITUATION Little Borough occupies a delightful semi-rural location set on the edge of Thursley National Nature Reserve in an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty and Great Landscape Value having immediate access to many miles of bridleways and footpaths. The property, although enjoying this fantastic semi-rural setting is conveniently located lying between the pretty Surrey villages of Milford and Thursley and only approximately 4 miles from Godalming and 8 miles from Guildford. For day to day needs Milford village offers an excellent variety of local shops and services including a chemist, post office and doctors' and dentists' surgeries. The larger towns of Godalming and Guildford are easily reached and offer a comprehensive range of leisure and recreational facilities together with a wide range of public houses and restaurants. For the commuter, there is a main line station at Milford offering a service to Waterloo in under one hour, while for the commuter by road, access to the A3 is close at hand providing road communication to London and the south coast as well as giving access to both Heathrow and Gatwick airports via the M25 and M23 motorways. Schools in both the state and private sector are available in the surrounding area, while for walking and riding enthusiasts the property could not be better located, adjoining the Thursley National Nature Reserve, itself designated as a Site of Special Scientific Interest, (SSSI) Special Protection Area, (SPA) and Special Area of Conservation. (SAC)

Directions: Leave Godalming in a southerly direction on the A3100 turning right at the roundabout by the Inn on the Lake and continue on to Milford Village. At the mini roundabout take the second exit and continue through the village and on to the traffic lights. Turn left at the lights and continue along the road which joins as a slip road to the A3 south bound carriage way. Continue for about 2 miles and take slip road turning for Thursley, turn right going over the A3 and rejoin the north bound carriageway. Continue for 1.3 miles and turn left into Borough Farm Road. Continue for approx 0.5 miles and just before you reach the gated entrance of Borough Farm turn left onto the unmade lane. Little Borough will then be seen ahead of you.
