Sweeping Inter-coastal views, protected dock-age, superior style and construction, and a prime location on one of Delray Beach's finest streets is offered in this brand new four bedroom, five and one half bath home. Nothing has been overlooked in this gracious, yet comfortable home, situated conveniently close to the beach and Atlantic Ave. An impressive foyer, stunning great room with fireplace, Cypress panelled library/media room, gourmet chef's kitchen, an ideally situated dining room, a large bedroom suite, serving as a second master/VIP suite, expansive loggia, and separate summer kitchen, all leading to lush gardens, deck, pool and dock with breathtaking inter-coastal views. This home is built to perfection for outdoor living and entertaining. On the second floor, the exquisite master suite provides expansive views from the private covered porch, a large living room, two additional bedroom suites, and a laundry room. Built for the most discerning buyer, attention to detail is apparent with custom finishes and extensive mill-work throughout. Walnut hardwood floors, designer tile and stone counters, Dominican coral pool deck and loggia, recessed sliding doors, custom cabinetry, whole house generator, concrete dock with facilities, and structural upgrades throughout make this an exceptional home. The architectural design and spectacular views have to be seen to be appreciated. This brand new residence is a treasure...perfectly positioned for peace, privacy and an easy, relaxing lifestyle in Delray Beach's most sought after neighbourhood.
