DESCRIPTION

A really beautifully presented four storey Victorian house situated in an elevated position in this highly sought after village location. The property offers light and airy accommodation and extends to c. 1182 sq. ft. and comprises, entrance porch, cloakroom, lovely sitting room with gas fired stove and oak floor. This leads into an open plan kitchen/dining/family room with door leading onto rear garden. On the lower ground floor is an excellent fourth bedroom or study, on the first floor, two bedrooms and bathroom and on the top floor a further bedroom with superb views towards the city and river. The garden to the front of the property is of particular note and to the rear, a private garden with timber home office and brick built storage shed.

LOCATION

Iffley Village is situated within the Oxford ring road and about 2.2 miles from the city centre. Extensive shopping and recreational facilities can be found in Oxford with the mainline station providing a regular train service to London Paddington in about fifty five minutes. Oxford provides a good range of both state and private schooling, Magdalen College, The Dragon and St. Edwards to name but a few, with Abingdon College and Radley College nearby. Within walking distance is a community shop, hotel, two public houses and a Norman church dating back to the 12th century. The village is close to the River Thames and from Iffley Lock the tow path provides lovely walks beside the river, also leads to the city centre.

DIRECTIONS

From The Plain, proceed along the Iffley Road. Continue over the Donnington Bridge traffic lights. Turn right into Iffley Turn. At the mini roundabout, turn right into Church Way. The property will be found on the left hand side before the village shop.
