Timothy Proctor Partner

George Proctor, founder of the company, was my grandfather and it makes me very proud to be a third generation partner in the business. I've been working at the Proctors Park Langley branch since 1996, upholding the high standards set by my father and grandfather. Outside work, life is busy with two young children and when time allows I love to be by the sea with my family.

Richard Frost Sales Manager

I have worked for Proctors for over 20 years, starting at the Beckenham branch before moving to Park Langley in 2012. I enjoy the daily tasks the job brings, enriched by the many different properties and characters we come across. I live locally with my wife and three girls and I am a keen sportsman, holding membership at the Park Langley tennis club.

Susan Buff New Homes Director

I started working at the Bromley office in 1986 and was then appointed Director of the New Homes department 15 years later, based at the Park Langley office. I oversee a huge variety of new build schemes from small local firms to national developers, across all areas. Outside the hours of a job I love, my time is spent having fun with family and friends, travelling and reading.

Mark Wilder Negotiator

I joined the company in 1987, working part time at first. Having worked at four of the company's offices, I joined the team at Park Langley in 1991 and now have responsibility for accompanying the majority of viewing appointments. In my spare time I enjoy gardening and walking off the cake, often enjoyed at our weekly meetings.

Jenny Mill Secretary

I have been at Proctors for over 10 years and enjoy the challenges it brings. Before this I worked for a local building contractor, so having seen the process of property construction, it is interesting to be so closely involved with the sales process. When I am not in the office I enjoy spending time with my family and friends and love watching a good film.

Louise Randell Negotiator

Having lived in Beckenham all my life and enjoyed a diverse working career, I was excited to join Proctors and become part of the Park Langley Team. I have huge enthusiasm for both property and people, so I could not have found a more ideal job, helping buyers to find their perfect home. With two sons I have a busy life outside work and enjoy walking our dog, cycling and weekend camping trips.

About our area

Our Park Langley office is nestled between Beckenham, West Wickham and Eden Park, all offering a good selection of local shops, bars and restaurants. Gated developments and green areas give the neighbourhood an air of exclusivity, while still retaining a strong sense of community. The area has excellent primary and secondary schools and boasts fantastic sporting facilities including The Park Langley Club for racquet sports and the century-old Langley Park Golf Club.

Did you know?

Built in 1928, The Chinese Garage is allegedly, and ironically, inspired by a Japanese pagoda. It was voted the most unusual garage in England in 2001.

Where to buy

From Eden Park to Park Langley and Beckenham, the area has an abundance of family homes in different styles, with large detached and semi-detached properties featuring extensive gardens. Park Langley was developed at the turn of the 20th Century on the historic Langley Park Estate; the garden city movement influenced the initial phase and this is reflected in the open layout. Many of the characterful properties are Edwardian or echo the art deco style of the time. There are also plenty of new-build Georgian-style townhouses and lakeside apartments located within the gated communities of Langley Park and Langley Waterside. Manor Way is arguably Beckenham's most desirable address. Backing the stunning Kelsey Park, homes here offer the ideal suburban retreat.

TRANSPORT

Bus: Extensive bus services to all major towns, including Beckenham, Bromley and Orpington.

Train: Eden Park into Charing Cross and Cannon Street, Shortlands into Blackfriars and London Victoria and Beckenham Junction into London Bridge, London Victoria and Farringdon.

Why is the area right for you?

Families are attracted to the area because of the outstanding schools and great range of family homes. It is also perfectly placed for the London-bound commuter looking for a quiet residential area with easy access from Eden Park and Beckenham Junction stations, which serve a number of mainline London stations.

Top 5 reasons to move to the area

- 1 Great transport links to London and other major towns via trains and buses.
- 2 Fantastic sports facilities including The Park Langley Club, the David Lloyd Leisure Centre and Langley Park Golf Club.
